SPEAKERS ASSIGNED TO ADDRESS TOBACCO GROWERS

Assignment of speakers who will address the tobacco growers Saturday, in connection with the second distribution of money to members by the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, was announced by Assistant Chief of the Field Service William Collins, along with the statement that every grower will receive his money in the county in which he resides:

Congressman J. Campbell Cantrill has been assigned to speak at Lancaster, Garrard County, at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon and Congressman Arthur B. Rouse at Burlington, Boone county, at the same hour.

Director of Warehouses Ralph M. Barker will speak at Richmond at 1:30, Chief of the Field Joseph Passonneau at Glasgow at 1:30, Associate Counsel Virgil Chapman at Lawrenceburg at 10:30 in the morning and at Nicholasville at 2:30 in the afternoon; Clifton Rodes, in charge of the West Virginia campaign, at Danville in the morning at 10:30 and at Harrodsburg at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

John E. Brown, of Shelbyville, one of the sponsors of the Bingham co-operative marketing act in the Legislature last winter, will speak at Carrollton at 10:30 in the morning and at Madison, Ind., at 2:30 in the afternoon; W. H. Whitley, of Paris, will speak at Campbellsville; Dr. Samuel H. Halley, of Lexington, at Bedford; Wm. O. Hinton, of Paris, at Stanford; James N. Kehoe and Stanley F. Reed, at Maysville; the Rev. R. S. Wilson and John P. McCartney, at Flemingsburg.

At most of the meetings there will be music and at some burgoos will be served, the material being given by members of the association, as well as those who will receive their checks, are invited to attend these meetings, Mr. Collins said.

SIR KNIGHT M. H. H. DAVIS

Elected Eminent Grand Commander Kentucky Knights Templar.

PARIS LOSES FIGHT FOR 1923 TEMPLAR CONCLAVE

The annual Conclave of the Grand Commandery, State Knights Templar, which has been in session at Maysville since Tuesday, came to a closed yesterday, after an unusually interesting session. Paris made a fight for the 1923 Conclave, but Paducah won that honor, after a spirited contest. An invitation on behalf of the city of Paris and the Paris Commercial Club, was handed by Mayor E. B. January, and Harold F. Harris, the latter secretary of the Commercial Club, to Eminent Commander Robert E. Lusk of Couer de Lion Commandery, of Paris, who presented it at the proper time to the Conclave in session.

Miles H. H. Davis, of Paris, who has been in line for promotion from the second highest office to the highest in the gift of the Conclave, was elected Eminent Grand Commander, an office for which he is eminently fitted. Mr. Davis was heartily congratulated by his fraters and by his friends and business associates all over the State.

Paris was well represented by a large delegation from Couer de Lion Commandery, their wives and daughters. The Commandery had headquarters at home of Elmer Dodson, on Third street, where they entertained Wednesday afternoon. In the parade they marched to the inspiring strains of marches played by the Boys' Band from the Odd Fellows Home, at Lexington. Many made the trip by autos, while the majority went on the special train.

Sir Knight Miles H. H. Davis, the newly elected Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knight Templar, was born in Union county, Kentucky, November 25, 1871. Since May, 1904, he has been a resident of Paris, Kentucky. He received the symbolic degrees of Masonry in Lexington Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M., in 1899; the caputular degrees in Lexington Chapter No. 1, R. A. M., in 1900 and 1901; the cryptic degrees in Washington Council No. 1, R. & S. M., in 1902. These bodies are located at Lexington, Kentucky. The Order of Christian Knighthood was conferred on him February 23, 1916, in Couer de Lion Commandery No. 26, Knights Templar, Paris, Kentucky. The Scottish Rite degrees in the Grand Consistory of Kentucky, at Louisville, attaining the Thirty-second Degree April 7, 1906, in Couer de Lion Commandery, Oleika Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Lexington, Kentucky, July 4, 1908.

In all the branches of Masonry he has been an enthusiastic member, devoting all the spare time possible from business affairs to the advancement of the interests of the Grand Old Masonic order. His views coincide with those of the lamented Hiram Bassett (the noblest Masonic character ever known in the Blue Grass region), that the foundation of Masonry was charity and brotherly love. His belief in these two principles has been strongly evidenced by his many deeds of "charity and pure beneficence." In espousing the cause of a friend or brother he does it unselfishly and "without the hope of fee or reward." The interest manifested by him has done more to build up the Masonic order in his home town during the past two decades than anything else. As a recognition of his ability and efforts his brethren never cease to award him preferment when possible.

He has been presiding officer of each Masonic body where his membership was, except the Scottish Rite bodies and the Shrine. Was Grand Master of the Grand Council of Kentucky; Royal and Select Masters, for one year; Grand Deacon of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M., 1912 to 1913; started in line in the Grand Commandery during the Grand Conclave held in Paris in 1912, by being elected Grand Captain of the Guard, and has been advanced at each succeeding Conclave, being elected Deputy Grand Commander at Mt. Sterling in 1921. His elevation to the high office of Grand Commander is an honor his fraters and friends feel that he richly deserved.

Sir Knight Davis has attended the Triennial Conclaves held at Philadelphia and New Orleans as a duly accredited representative; several annual conclaves of the Grand Commanderies of Ohio and Indiana; conference of Grand Masters of Grand Lodges of the United States at Indianapolis, and other notable occasions. He was elected as one of the four representatives of Oleika Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., Lexington, Kentucky, to the Annual Meeting of the Imperial Shrine of the United States, to be held at San Francisco in June, 1922. Since he has been an officer in the Grand Commandery he has probably inspected more Commanderies than any of his associates. It has been a pleasure for him to fill any assignment of his several chief officers. He has been president of the Masonic Temple Company of Paris, Kentucky, for seven years, the condition of which has been vastly improved during his incumbency. As a business man he has been a marked success. In the religious world he has been a communicant of the Christian church for about thirty years. His membership is now in the Paris Christian church.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS IN MASON

James Kackley, local merchant, narrowly escaped death from a bolt of lightning which struck a bird house about four feet from the garage in which he stood, split the box and killed every bird but one, which escaped injury.

Gilbert Smiley, while plowing on his farm, unearthed a gold watch lost by James McIntyre while plowing in the same field thirty years ago. The case was in a splendid state of preservation, but the stem had rusted away and the works were stuck together.

BOURBON GUN CLUB

The regular club shoot was held Wednesday afternoon at our new grounds in East Paris. The afternoon was perfect for target shooting, some of the shooters were as perfect as the afternoon—in fact seventeen perfect scores of twenty-five were turned in by the boys. Ben Hisle, from Lexington, was right on the job with a perfect 100. We had two trophies hung up for this shoot, the first trophy, a dandy Kentucky River cane fishing pole, donated by James R. Pendleton; second trophy, a box of 50 Sonada cigars donated by J. B. Smith.

After shooting 50 targets each for trophies, ten were tied up for first shoot-off, then five tied up for second shoot-off, then two for third shoot-off, same two for fourth shoot-off, and the same two still fighting it out for the fifth shoot-off. As it was getting so late, several of the boys started catching lightning bugs to set on the targets, so they could see them. It some manner one lone little target out of the last 150 shot at saved its life and the intense strain was over. It was strange that this hot contest should be between the President of the Bourbon Gun Club, Mr. J. C. Kenney, and the President of the Kentucky Trapsnooters League, Mr. J. Q. Ward, and both of them members of Bourbon Gun Club.

Mr. Kenney won first and Mr. Ward second trophy. Remember the Kentucky State Tournament, July 18, 19 and 20. The scores:

THREE COUNTIES AGREE TO RAISE ASSESSMENT

Officials of Mercer, Bourbon and Lincoln counties appeared before the State Tax Commission, at Frankfort, Tuesday, in answer to citations to appear and show cause why the State Commission should not reassess counties. The boards of supervisors had failed to meet orders of the commission that assessments be increased.

After conferences with members of the commission it was said that the officials had agreed to return to their counties and endeavor to have the increases ordered by the commission made.

Bourbon county was represented at the hearings before the Commission by County Judge George Baterton and County Clerk Pearce Paton.

ALLEGES ILLEGAL EXPENSES BY SCHOOL BOARDS

Inspections of county board offices by the department of education have brought to light the illegal expenditure of money, according to Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin, who addressed communications to members and officials of county boards of education urging immediate correction of these conditions.

Section 5 of the county board law provides that the county board shall have control of the county school fund. This section, Superintendent Colvin says, further provides every reasonable check to protect the children and the taxpayers against irregular expenditure in that it forbids any payment of claims except by the board in session. He urges that the law be complied with to the letter.

BASE BALL

THE CHURCH LEAGUE

The following is the standing of the four teams in the Church League to date:

Clubs	Won	Lost	Pct.
Methodist	2	0	.1000
Christians	2	1	.667
Baptists	1	1	.500
Presbyterians	0	3	.000

The game between the Christians and the Presbyterian team of the Church League played Tuesday afternoon on Hancock Field was one-sided but interesting. The Christians defeated their opponents by the lop-sided score of 13 to 1. A large crowd was in attendance. The batteries were: For the Christians, Willis, Kiser and Tadlock; for the Presbyterians, Rogers and Dalzell. The features of the game were a home run and two three-baggers by Thompson, and three-base hits by Baldwin and Arhsparger.

The next game in the League series will be played this (Friday) afternoon at Hancock Field between the Baptist and Methodist teams.

The Paris Pirates, Capt. Arthur B. Hancock, Jr.'s crack amateur team, who have played and won five games this season, will play the Mt. Sterling High School team on Hancock Field to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, at three o'clock.

Paris defeated Winchester in the game played yesterday afternoon at League Park by the score of 3 to 0. A rain which set in early in the afternoon promised to be of the "rain check" kind, but the weather man eased up long enough to enable the Mammoths to shut out the Hustlers. The game went the full nine innings, though most of the spectators left in the last half of the seventh. The batteries were: For Paris, Miner and Brocky; for Winchester, Riffe and Frazier. The attendance was light, due to the threatening weather conditions. Paris will play at Mt. Sterling Sunday afternoon.

PARIS CARPENTERS IN AUTO SMASHUP

While returning to Paris from the Xalapa Farm, where he has a contract for remodeling the old home, Albert Wright, accompanied by Martin Snapp and two other carpenters employed on the work, had a close call from death, when their car "turned turtle" near the home of James Dodge, on the North Middletown pike.

The machine skidded and turning over, fell in a ditch at the side of the road, smashing the top and pinning the occupants beneath it. Mr. Snapp suffered four broken ribs. The other men were severely bruised and cut. The engine of the machine continued to run after it had turned over, and did not stop until a passerby crawled under the wreck and shut off the gas. Another machine was secured, and the injured men were brought to a physician's office, where their injuries were given attention, and they were taken to their homes.

SAYS INFORMATION INCORRECT

In the issue of THE NEWS of Tuesday appeared an item regarding a little daughter of Mrs. Jordan, of Harmon street, being bitten by a dog said to have belonged to Mrs. Harp, of the same street. We are informed by Mrs. Harp that she did not own the dog, and that it belonged to Harold Harp. She further states that THE NEWS' informant got the facts perverted, and that the little child was only scratched, not enough to warrant the attending physician to bandage, the iodine treatment being applied. THE NEWS received the information from what was thought to be an authentic source. In justice to Mrs. Harp the above explanation is made.
